

To declare a French major or minor please attend a declaration meeting. New meetings are currently being scheduled. Please check back.

For other advising needs, or if you cannot attend a group meeting, schedule an advising appointment by emailing at **fritadvising@gmail.com** please see directions for advising meetings below.

Office Hours and Appointment Scheduling for French

For advising needs other than declaring a French major or minor, you will need to schedule an appointment with Prof. Betsy Kerr, Director of Undergraduate Studies, French.

Advising hours: Tuesday 9 a.m. - 11 a.m., Thursday 1 p.m. - 3 p.m.
Location: Folwell 351A

Appointments are scheduled at 20-minute intervals (e.g. 9:00, 9:20, 9:40 etc.)

For those who absolutely cannot make the advising hours, you should contact Prof. Kerr directly at bjkerr@umn.edu.

To schedule an appointment, click on the link below and send an e-mail with the following information:

- Name
- Student ID number
- Reason for your appointment
- Two proposed appointment times (Example: Tues. Oct. 22, 10:20 or 10:40).

In order to do equivalencies for study abroad or other transfer courses, the courses must appear on your transcript as individual courses. When coming for this purpose, please bring a copy of your unofficial transcript.

Undergraduate Program in French & Italian French-Italian Studies

The major in French-Italian studies allows students to combine work in both areas, including language study, literature, culture, and film.

To declare the major in French-Italian Studies or for other advising needs, you will need to schedule an appointment with Prof. Betsy Kerr, Director of Undergraduate Studies, French. Please see instructions above. You will follow the same advising instructions as French students.
